

BICI EMILY LOUISE ALLEN, LEED AP
130 India Street #2 Brooklyn NY 11222
emily@biciplanning.com || 831.588.3964

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

New York City Department of City Planning Transportation Division, Intern || New York, NY – January 2009 – Present

- Assembled and analyzed eight years of bicycle infrastructure and cyclist count data;
- Wrote Bicycle Lane Profiles, a comprehensive study of NYC bicycle infrastructure to provide quantifiable support for further installation of bike lanes and greenways.
- Researched, wrote, and fact-checked assigned sections of South Bronx Mixed-Use Zones Pedestrian Study on a team project.

Bike to School, Project Leader (NYU Green Grant) || New York, NY – May 2007 – September 2008

- Conceived of initiatives and wrote proposal; received competitive grant funding for two projects.
- Orchestrated program to reclaim and redistribute abandoned bicycles on campus to students.
- Wrote “Bicycling at New York University,” a study of existing infrastructure and programs, featuring recommendations and supporting research for the improvement and expansion of bicycling on campus;
- Adopted by the NYU Sustainability Task Force as the bicycle section of their Transportation Master Plan.

The End Records, Assistant Marketing Director || Brooklyn, NY – May 2007 – February 2008

- Coordinated and directed The End’s internship program.
- Directed the 500+ member street team; created “buzz” around the label’s releases, tours, and bands.

San Jose Office of Cultural Affairs, Intern || San Jose, CA – Summer 2005

- Documented and photographed the city’s public art collection.
- Created damage assessment reports recording imperfections on the artworks.

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

NYU Sustainability Task Force, Task Force Adviser & Member of the Transportation and Reduce, Reuse, Recycle Working Group || New York NY – September 2008 - Present

- Consultant to task force on all bicycle related questions or issues.
- Working Group charged with the Transportation Master Plan, beginning to implement recommendations from “Bicycling at New York University.”

Time’s Up! Bicycle Co-op, Membership and Volunteer Coordinator || New York, NY – December 2006 – Present

- Implemented new attendance databasing system; co-op membership increased by more than 5%.
- Expanded membership benefits program, introduced a volunteering for membership program.

EDUCATION and HONORS

New York University, Gallatin School of Individualized Study

Concentration: “Sustainable Urban Planning and Design” || BA, Expected Graduation 2010

Awarded the 2008 Edward Bergman Fellowship in Social Entrepreneurship

REFERENCES

Jack Schmidt, Director of Transportation Division, NYC Department of City Planning – 212.442.4630 || jschmid@planning.nyc.gov

Jeremy Friedman, Coordinator of NYU Sustainability Task Force – 212.998.1073 || jeremy.friedman@nyu.edu

Bill DiPaola, Executive Director of Time’s Up! Non-Profit – 917.577.5621 || billtimesup@gmail.com